

The Three Minute Thesis (3MT) is a national competition for thesis-based graduate students in which participants present their scholarly and creative activity, and its wider impact in 3 minutes or less. The challenge is to present complex research in an accessible and compelling way with the assistance of only one static slide. The competition celebrates exciting and innovative graduate student research while promoting communication, public speaking, and storytelling skills.

Please note: Participants must be present on the Thunder Bay or Orillia campus for this event
