INDI-2012-SDE*:
Working with Indigenous Knowledges

Online/Zoom (Thunder Bay campus), Mondays to Thursdays, 7:00pm-10:00pm, May 1st to May 22nd, Spring 2024

Course Description: An introductory course where definitions and characteristics of Indigenous knowledge systems are explored. Students will also engage with key considerations to promote respectful and responsible engagement with Indigenous knowledges, including cultural appropriation, representation, intellectual property rights, cultural protocols and working with Elders.

* Please note INDI 2012 has replaced INDI 3501 and is a required course

Scan for course details   Scan for the IL webpage